INSTRUCTIONS

You will have ten minutes to complete the quiz for Week Two: An Uncommon Brotherhood. You may not use any resources (e.g. notes, The White Diamond) to complete this quiz. Please write legibly. If individuals grading your exam cannot read your handwriting, you may not receive full credit for your answers.

As you complete the quiz, keep in mind the following instructions:

- If the word or name of an essential element is misspelled, you will only receive partial credit for that part of the question.
- On questions that ask for a description, the description must be accurate in order to receive full credit.
- If you provide additional information that is incorrect, points may be deducted from that portion of the question.
