

Are you looking to leave a gift to support Pi Kappa Phi in a codicil?

Thank you for considering leaving a gift to the Pi Kappa Phi Foundation in your estate plan. Some donors choose to leave a gift in a codicil - a minor change or addition to an existing will. We're happy to provide some suggested language that can be used for this purpose but keep in mind that you will have to have the codicil signed by one or more witnesses in order to be valid according to the laws of your state.

Sample Codicil Language

I, [name], a resident of the County of [county], State of [state], declare that this is the codicil to my last will and testament, which is dated [date original signed].

I add or change said last will in the following manner:

List all specific changes or additions to the original will. Reference each section number of the will and the specific language you will be affecting. This is where you could include a bequest to support our mission. See our [suggested bequest language that can assist you.]

Otherwise, I hereby confirm and republish my will dated [date original signed], in all respects other than those herein mentioned.

I subscribe my name to this codicil this [day, e.g. 1st] day of [month], [year], at [full address where signed], in the presence of [full name of first witness to codicil], [full name of second witness to codicil], and [full name of third witness to codicil], attesting witnesses, who subscribe their names here in my presence.
