

SAMPLE STANDARDS BOARD APPLICATION

“A True Gentleman is the man whose conduct proceeds from good will and an acute sense of propriety, and whose self-control is equal to all emergencies. Who does not make the poor man conscious of his poverty; the obscure man of his obscurity, or any man of his inferiority or deformity. Who is himself humbled when necessity compels him to humble another; who does not flatter wealth, cringe before power, boast of his possessions or achievements. Who speaks with frankness but with sincerity and sympathy always. Whose deed follows his work; who thinks of the rights and feelings of others rather than his own. And who appears well in any company, a man with whom honor is sacred and virtue safe.”

Please submit this application, along with your typed responses to the essay questions, to the Executive Council via email.
